Working at camp will be TRANSFORMATIVE for both you, and for the campers you teach.

“You will go home very TIRED every day, but it is also UNBELIEVABLY REWARDING to watch a camper who struggles at the beginning of camp come into their own throughout the week and have that BREAKTHROUGH MOMENT.”

-Rachel, Camp Educator

“I LOVE working at camp because I have fun, I learn, and I BELIEVE IN THE MISSION. Your coworkers and supervisors will never give up on you and they really want to see you THRIVE.”

-Alex, Camp Educator

“I’m particularly proud of the CONFIDENCE I gained working at camp. I’m not a ‘camp person,’ but once I embraced it, it was worth it. I’m INSPIRED to continue working with kids and see the impact teaching science has.”

-Lauren, Camp Educator

UIL camps are day camps. Room and board are not included in staff compensation.

21ST CENTURY SKILLS
Communication, Collaboration, Critical Thinking, Creativity, and Contribution that are critical for success in today’s world are developed and practiced at camp; they are skills and traits that can draw employers’ attention to your resume.

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION
Camp directors/leaders write great letters of recommendation because they take the time to get to know you as an individual and see you in action on a daily basis.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
Ongoing professional development sets you up to learn about your job while building a strong team with the people you will be working with and offers support all throughout the summer.

-college credit or internship
You may be eligible for college credit in some cases or able to use camp as an independent study, practicum, or internship experience — ask your advisor or talk to a professor at your school about how the skills you will learn directly relate to your major and will make you a stronger job candidate.

PAYCHECK
You will typically get paid a base salary with add-ons for experience, certifications, leadership roles, extra duties, etc., and may include a bonus for completing your contract (spending the summer at camp is a great way to save most of your earnings!)

UIL camps are day camps. Room and board are not included in staff compensation.

ROOM & BOARD
Will be provided if working at a resident camp; housing, meals, laundry, utilities, and other living expenses are covered, which means extra $ in your pocket at the end of the camp season when returning to school (or looking for a job)

NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES
With other staff and connections to camp alumni can provide a link to possible internships or future job opportunities in a variety of careers.

DIVERSE & GLOBAL EXPERIENCE
Camp often provides a global experience without the expense of long-distance travel; it is not uncommon for campers and staff to be from a variety of places and cultural perspectives from around the US and world.

LEADERSHIP
Is learned in a real-life context (not made-up or contrived!) You will likely be supervising between 7–15 others, engaging in decision-making, behavior management, and living ethics — all necessary leadership skills for today.

TRAINING & CERTIFICATIONS
You get to keep any additional training you may acquire (like CPR, first aid, and activity specialist certifications) that may also help you land a job at home or school working in a wide range of settings

All UIL Camp staff will be offered the opportunity to complete CPR and First-Aid Training.
Summer Camp Jobs Exposed!

What’s really going on behind all of the fun? If you’re not careful, you’ll develop skills employers really want to see on your resume.

WORKING IN THE CAMP ENVIRONMENT CULTIVATES. . .

Oral Communication Skills. You will be required to communicate effectively with people at every level of the organization — campers, fellow staff, camp directors, and parents.

Critical Thinking and Problem Solving. You will be challenged to think on your feet to resolve a myriad of issues from the health and safety of children to how to get 12 campers to make their beds each morning.

Interpersonal and Leadership Skills. You will model professionalism and compassion by managing a group of campers, while contributing to the growth and development of each individual participant.

Collaborative Skills. You will receive on-the-ground, practical, real life training in how to work with a team and help build the culture of your camp community.

Creativity. You will develop innovative and fun ways to engage an audience of two to 200 and implement alternate plans when faced with unexpected changes to the daily routine.

Here’s what a former camp counselor had to say about the value of putting camp on your resume.

“Having camp job experience on your resume is a way to set yourself apart from other candidates, because you can so easily translate what you did in your role at camp into the vocabulary of your field. Working as a youth development specialist (camp counselor) provides you the arena to practice responsibility, thinking on your feet, communication, collaboration, creativity, problem solving, management skills (and so much more) in a real world context. I often see resumes from people who interned in a law office stating they “prepared binders,” but what that really means is they were making copies. Working at camp gives you valuable firsthand experience. Plus, who knows, your resume may fall into the hands of someone who went to camp themselves and your experience will resonate with them as being the ‘real deal!’”
